Dear Lucy:

It was a pleasure hearing you speak recently at the AWED conference. I must tell you that of all the workshops I attended, yours was the most exciting, as well as the most informative. Your ability to think on your feet is exceptional, and each of your ideas was more intriguing than the next.

Dedicated to the art of corporate gift giving, my company, WISHES UNDER WRAPS designs and creates lavishly trimmed, one of a kind gift baskets, overflowing with an unusual assortment of gift items, gourmet foods, personal care products, executive accessories, baby gifts and more.

So whether that prospect you've been after for six months still won't return your calls, or you really want to thank an existing client for those referrals she keeps sending your way, a custom designed gift basket from WISHES UNDER WRAPS is the perfect gift.

I'll give you a call toward the end of next week to follow up and answer any questions you may have. If, in the meantime, you would like any additional information, please feel free to give me a call. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Staci Drexler
